Like your crime fiction in bite-sized chunks? If so, Killer Femmes have something for you to chew on.

In Volume 2, which we've appropriately called "Small Bites," we bring you 9 irresistible short stories set in unique exotic locations ... all written by award-winning, best-selling authors.

Each of us have contributed two stories, except Sujata, who contributed a novelette.

There's also a "Bonus" read following the stories that includes excerpts of new or upcoming novels by each of us. Best of all, Small Bites has a very small price: Only 99 cents for the entire package. Between us, Killer Femmes have written over 60 novels and have been nominated for (and even won) numerous awards, including the Edgar, the Anthony, the Agatha, the Shamus, the Daphne, the Macavity, the Barry, the Lovey, and the CWA Dagger.
