Mina Hwang (b. 1961) published her first manga in May of 1980, titled Blue Star In Ionia. Her extraordinary career has seen her publish 39 title selections to date and she's far from finishing her work. Among those titles are: "Taeguk Martial Art", "Who Knows", "Time Hunter", "Arrow of Armetis" and "Yoonhee" as well as "Uncle Lee"; both of which were published in Korea and Japan. Her current serial works include: "Just Friends", which is being published on the Internet webzine 'ComicsToday' and "Blood, Sweat, Tears", which is offered in a magazine publication. Mina Hwang has been awarded with the prestigious honor of Manga of the Year for both "Redmoon" and "Boy From Hidden Village".
