The Price to Play 2: Secrets and Deception is back in this drama filled series. Quincy and Angela are off to a good start in healing their marriage as they recover from Q's dangerous affair with his off the wall mistress, Josie.

Things are going well for the two lovebirds, but trouble lurks around the corner as Angela receives suspicious packages from an unknown admirer. Meanwhile, Quincy is on his own conquest for answers as he uncovers the hidden truths behind his mother's secret box. As he began to unravel secrets, he realizes that his life may get turned upside down in more ways than one. Detective Kenny Jamalt is back again, and not in the most pleasant way as he continues his secrecy of doing dirty deeds. The sinister detective has one agenda, and that's to win Angela's heart...and he will do anything to do just that, but he has two problems...Josie and Trina. Monica, Angela's best friend, is back in this drama with problems of her own. After discovering the identity of her husband's long lost sister, she notices that Miguel has been holding his own secrets which have made Monica completely uncomfortable. Not sure of Miguel's recent actions and whereabouts, Monica begins to suspect that Miguel is having an affair, but her revelations might burn her as nothing is ever what it seems.
