Nuggets of faith can be passed down as heirlooms from friend to friend, heart to heart, soul-mate to soul-mate. Zoe Rossdale is the clumsy girl who always has her elbows, feet, eyes, and brass-red hair going in the wrong directions. After a lifetime of being evaluated critically-and found wanting-she's trying to change...until she literally runs into the only man she's ever gone loopy over. Curt Bertolotti has spent years trying to forget the seriously messed-up Zoe. Even as he vows that he won't stray again, he can't help remembering how well they fit together.

At the end of the day, Zoe will always be Zoe-the clumsy girl with her dress tucked into her pantyhose, the girl whose idea of falling in love is to stand at the edge of the precipice, throw out her arms and confidently jump into a free-fall. Can they both live with that fact? Forever?
