Here begins the last Legend of Prathak. The final record of the events that will lead to the destruction of all life on Prathak once and for all. — The world of Prathak is dying. A great calamity brought upon by a magical force overcame the world thousands of years ago, causing widespread chaos throughout all lands. A few thousand survivors were able to escape the destruction by a magical barrier that protected them while the force laid waste to the rest of the world. Thousands years later, the descendants of those survivors continue to live under the barrier. Not knowing any other way of life. The barrier keeps them alive and that is all they know. But nefarious powers inside the barrier act to bring it down permanently. With nothing to protect them, will this be the end of all life on Prathak once and for all? Or is there still a sliver of hope?
