Chrissy “Kinks” Leroy has a certain itch she needs scratched. The problem is, there are no unmated shifter males she wants to get freaky with in Deals Gap, North Carolina. How’s a girl supposed to have fun under these conditions? Ezra Goldsby is a lone wolf, outcast from his pack and traveling the open road, enjoying everything the world has to offer. Then he stops at a shifter bar and comes face-to-face with the most gorgeous trouble he has ever seen.

After they share a night to remember, Ezra walks out, not knowing that fate and his witchy great-grandmother are determined to throw them back together. This is a stand alone novella that takes place in Eliza Gayle’s Southern Shifters Kindle World.
