Have you ever experienced a premonition that you just couldn't shake? A foreboding dream or sign that you deeply wanted to ignore but...your spirit just wouldn't release it? Well meet Gabriela Hilson... Gabriela is a dreamer in more than one way.

She has daydreams of living the good life on her terms, and without compromise. But then, there are the "other" dreams.

The very strange and disturbing omens that come while sleeping. They whisper the conflict of everything, and arrange messages that Gabriela doesn't want to hear...or see. Especially the ones about her boyfriend. That's a problem. To Gabriela, Scholar is the king of kings.

She is willing to sacrifice it all for him, including family, friends, God, and her sanity. She believes that Scholar is a beautiful dream come-true... but is he really? After signing a record deal as a rapper, Scholar brings Gabriela along for the roller coaster ride of her life. He knows how much she loves him so when the drama begins, he uses his manipulative tactics to hold her in place. He is the ruler of their world, and every-thing is running the way he has always planned until things go horribly wrong. Suddenly, a well-planned dream quickly turns into the nightmare of all nightmares. Both Scholar and Gabriana learn the hard way to expect the unexpected - for he comes out of the blue. Or does he? He is extremely calculating... and his name is Khali Simone. After meeting him... Gabriana has no idea of the door she opens.
