A pure soul. A vengeful angel.

And dangerous first love. . . Seventeen-year-old Lexi Porter just wants to spend her senior year acing her exams, picking out colleges, and working her part-time job without any added stress. And romance was definitely not a part of her carefully thought-out plans. But her life is about to get extremely complicated. . . First, her best friend hints that he'd like more than just friends. Then after a freaky ground-shaking event, she meets a mysterious boy in the park. A boy she can't seem to forget. One that keeps showing up in her life at the oddest times. As Lexi sets out to discover who he is, she soon realizes that her life isn't what it seems. Either is the swoon-worthy guy who's been stalking her. After a series of terrifying encounters, Kade Worthington finally reveals a shocking secret that rocks her world. Because she's no ordinary teenager. . . Lexi's soul is one of the purest to roam the Earth, and the closer she gets to Kade, the more danger she seems to be in. Now Lexi's caught in the middle of an ancient battle between Heaven and Hell, and when these two sides clash—Lexi must decide who to trust with her soul—and even her heart.
